Weather Alert

All district activities Friday afternoon, Saturday, and Sunday have been canceled. Although the area within Pasadena ISD is not forecasted to be significantly impacted by rain until late Friday night, our district includes employees, families, students, and others who live in areas closer to the potential storm impact.

These decisions were made to ensure the safety of our students, their families, and staff members. Also, this will allow our families and employees the time to prepare for Hurricane Harvey.

If the storm stalls as forecasted, there could be flooding in our area over the weekend. If rain and possible flooding continue into the first part of next week, a decision regarding school on Monday August 28, 2017, will be made by 7:00 p.m. Sunday.

Pasadena ISD will utilize the following communication methods to keep you informed.

- District Website – www.pasadenaisd.org,
- District Facebook Page – facebook.com/pasadenaisd
- Automated phone message to all Pasadena ISD parents
- Local TV and news media stations.

Please be safe!

Monday Update

Thank you parents for your patience during our lockdown on Monday. Carter Lomax followed the district protocol when the lockdown was called just before dismissal. All students and faculty were safe throughout the lockdown while we awaited the city police department all clear.
